Your comments on the planning application

When will Camden realize that pubs are simply not suitable places to build apartments? The applicant intends to retain the ground floor for A4 use as a drinking establishment? We've heard that before. This is a greedy and cynical âsalami sliceâ. The new residents will complain about the noise and the pub will be closed within a year.

There is no provision for parking or affordable or social housing and another community loses the amenity of a public house. This is a potentially profitable pub in a nice part of town. The developer has left it to rot with the intention
