Summary of representations

(Officer response(s) in italics)

The owner/occupier of No. 23 Chevington have objected to the application on the following grounds:

- Unacceptable loss of an off street parking space.

Summary of comments

It is acknowledged that the proposed development would result in the loss of an off street parking space at the site. However, this loss is considered to be acceptable

	given the areas high public transport accessibility level and the applicants access to a garage nearby.
