Your comments on the planning application

This outlet has operated illegally as a fast food outlet for years, they illegally installed a kitchen duct and following months of complaints they were forced by you to remove it. However they continued to cook kebabs and serve hot food at all hours regardless of having no proper extraction. Our building stinks, the street outside is a mess, they attract noisy customers until early morning, place tables on the footpath illegally and have no formal waste removal agreement. They have clearly demonstrated that they are not fit to run a licensed food outlet and this application makes a mockery of planning law, EHO enforcement and
