Your comments on the planning application

We would object to any windows that would be erected that would in anyway be looking towards our property.
This may effect any planning should we wish to build in the future.
There is already a problem of sewage including that of waste used in the health industry which comes through to our property particularly in bad weather via shared pipes that we are both connected to should any more building work take place we believe that the current pipes would not cope with any more strain on the system.
We would also object to any property coming onto the
