2015/2705/P	Alan Farrell	27 Inglewood Road NW6 1QT	17/06/2015 09:16:53	SUPPRT	This kind of side-return development is becoming a common type of application in the local West-Hampstead area. This is with good reason, as it transforms narrow Victorian terraced properties into desirable, open plan homes - suitable for families. The preservation of the original look appears excellent in this plan, sympathetically retaining the features of the period. I am wholly in favour of developments such as this. On a street that is largely made up of multiple occupancy properties, this type of development supports the ongoing demographic diversity of the area, to include tenants and families alike. Absolutely this kind of development should be permitted.
