legal site boundary of the development - above ground outline of the Rosemheim building (now demolished) shown green

Red line denotes the legal site boundary of the development at ground floor level as advised by UCLH legal advisors.

The outline of the former Rosenheim building and the line of existing Odeon site hoarding will be denoted by boundary markers where the building line does not meet at ground level (ie setbacks, entrances etc)

These markers are in the form of stainless steel studs of minimum 25mm diameter, set into surface, and at spacing of no more than 2m apart or as agreed by LBC

All Boundary conditions as per agreed revised Building Setting Out drawing SK240 Rev.A issued on 24/02/14

No.	Date	Description
