Ms Phillips advised that:

1. For an application to replace existing windows, there is no requirement to submit a Design and Access Statement.
2. Although shown on the drawings, planning permission is not required for the rebuilding of the front boundary wall as it's height will not exceed the existing wall and it is being reinstated as originally constructed and that whilst the wall is adjacent to an existing tree Ms Phillips was informed that any matters relating to the tree are being dealt with by separate consultation between the building owner and Camden Council.
3. Although in a Conservation Area, as no demolition is due to take place a Full Planning Application is appropriate
4. The Application Fee was confirmed as £339.00
