| 2015/3530/P | N J Norris | 32 Mansfield Road Hampstead | 20/07/2015 11:00:57 | INT | As a frequent user of Frognal way I am delighted to see the proposed plans for the redevelopment of #22. The existing building is in a very dilapidated condition and is truly an eyesore to all who pass it. The plans for the new building would greatly enhance the area and should be supported by all. |

I feel that a considerable amount of dissent emanates from certain residents of Church Row, which has little basis in fact. There is some history between the residents' associations of Church Row and Frognal Way, where we ultimately had divergent views with regard to the neighbourhood forum scheme. This certainly gave rise to some of the antipathy that exists in this matter. Irrespective of that which existed in the past, the existing structure has effectively nothing left of the original building. In addition, there was relatively little to commend the building. As my wife and I own 66 Frognal which is Grade II* and an icon of the Modern Movement, I feel that we are qualified to make a comment on another modern building. In summary, I believe that there really can be no objective grounds to reject this application and I would urge the Council to accept it. Yours faithfully, Richard Jankel. |
