It is plain from comments you have received from neighbours that there is a Planning history related to development on this site, and that this is only the latest phase in an acrimonious story. We have to take this into account in assessing this proposal.

The proposed balcony, or terrace, is large, over-scaled in relation to the house, and poorly designed in concept and detail. Our main objection to it, however, is the overlooking it would cause, especially to houses in Willow Road. The glazed "privacy screens" would have little effect on this. Policy DP26 applies.
