Dear Jagdish

Thank you for clarifying. As Historic England were not consulted on the original application, we have no comments to make on the appeal.

Kind regards
Thomasin

Dear Thomasin,

Thank you for your reply.

Decision has been taken (refuse), it's too late to comment on listed building application now. At least planning inspectorate can take your comments into account during the appeal process.

I will add it to appeal record if you can CC to Camden on planningappeals@camden.gov.uk

Regards
Jagdish

Dear Jagdish,

Thank you for your email. I have had a look on our system and can't find any record of being consulted for the original LBC 2014/6518/L.

Please can you confirm if you are now consulting us on the original application or if you are asking us to comment on the appeal?

Thank you

Kind regards
Thomasin

Subject: FW: Consultee letter for Appeal Application: 2014/3316/P & 2014/6518/L

Dear Sir/Madam,
Historic England

Please find the attached appeal notification letter, Appeal ref:
APP/X5210/Y/15/3065818 and Camden ref; 2014/6518/L

Proposal: "Internal alterations in association with conversion of public house (Class A4) with ancillary accommodation to bistro (Class A3) at ground and basement floor levels, 2x self-contained flats at ground and first floor levels (Class C3) and 10 room hotel (Class C1), and erection of a three storey rear extension and light well to front".

Associated planning appeal ref: APP/X5210/W/15/3065814 and Planning
2014/3316/P

Historic England was added for consultation on Listed building application, but letter was missed out to released and deliver to your mailbox. Apologies for the delay notification.

Please could you send your comment to appeals@pins.gsi.gov.uk with reference APP/X5210/Y/15/3065818 and CC to planningappeals@camden.gov.uk or planning@camden.gov.uk
