Your comments on the planning application

The loss of front gardens to off-street parking in Goldhurst Terrace has long been of concern to CRASH. The character and appearance of the street in the heart of what is known as the Gardens Area of South Hampstead has suffered from the loss of planting, demolition of garden walls and introduction of hard standing for parking. To deprive the street of further parking spaces as this application requires will seriously impact a parking situation already in crisis in this street. Further hard-standing will only exacerbate water run-off problems in a street already on Camden's list of streets at risk of flooding. Laying waste to yet another front garden in a street where off-street parking space now outstrips the number of planted front gardens is little short of a crime and CRASH urges Council to refuse this application
