Your comments on the planning application

I object to the proposed planning application of 88 grays inn road. I live next door and the rear of my property over looks the building being proposed for demolition and replacement/extension to building. I get sunlight from my rear windows in my property and the effect of having a higher building will greatly reduce the amount of light/ loss of view i receive from the rear of my property. I can imagine these works will be noisy and dirty and cause a big inconvenience to the residents that live next to this like myself. I work nights and the prospect of trying to sleep whilst these works are going on will be impossible. i will lose loss of privacy by office windows facing my home windows.

Increasing the building will be over bearing compared to the existing structure. I object to the proposed planning/demolition application for the aforementioned reasons.
