

THIS IS NOT A LOVE SONG

Bedford Square, 2015

Specificity:

Gathering Corner

Material:

Reinforced Concrete blocks structural wall, painted in fluorescent orange color.

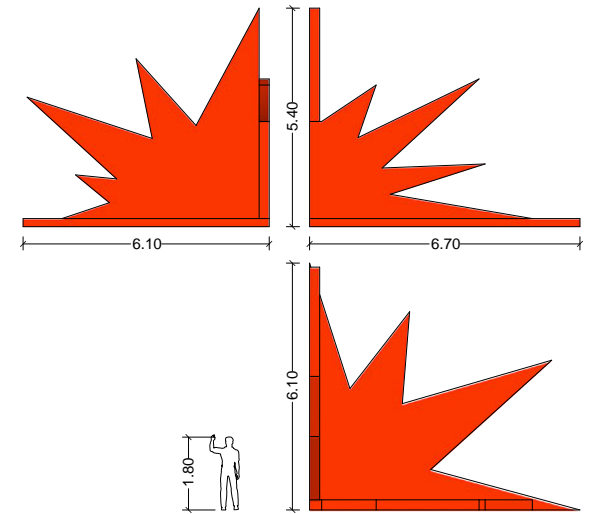

Dimension:

6.1 x 6.7 x 5.4 m

Purpose:

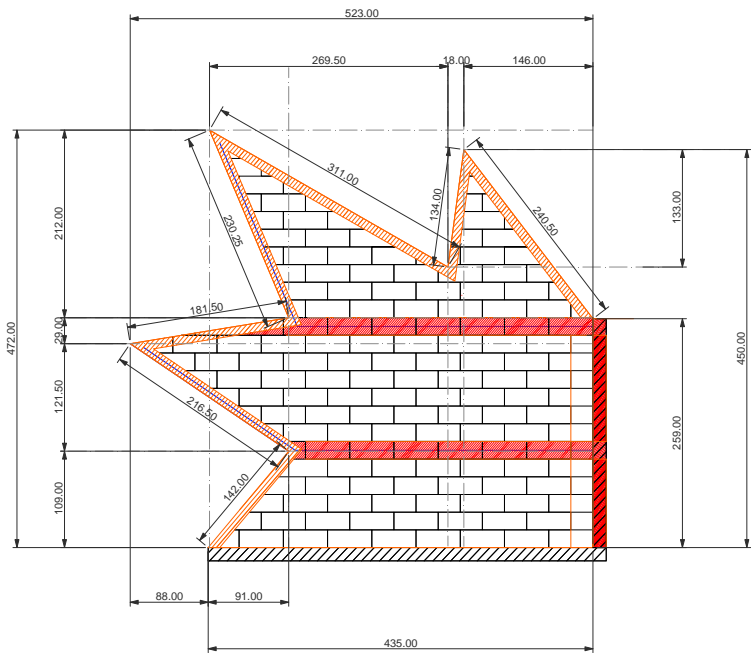

“This is not a love song” is a sculptural blast in the natural gardens of the Villa Andre Bloc in Maudon. The piece acts as an architectural performance platform within the flourishing physical environment of a place that the human body is intentionally abandoned.

This time the blast happens as an urban gathering corner at Bedford Square. “This is not a love song” is a stage, a platform, an installation that predisposes the occurrence of an event.
