The design is contrasting to the surrounding architecture, and so will impose on the area. This should be kept to a minimum by reducing the size and reconsidering proportions. Will there be problems with excavations in that small piece of land backing on to the railway line? Also it seems a lot of flats to fit in a small space, which will mean a lot more cars parking on our street in what is already a congested area. Construction will create a lot of noise and traffic, and access and work needs to be limited to sociable hours, and not weekends or evenings.
