Your comments on the planning application

Deeply concerned about a 5-storey building being planned to be erected in NW5 2DS. Seeing that the planning application did not specify the aimed for height, we have to make assumptions. 5-storey building in this area will destroy the residential look and feel to this historically grown part of Camden. Can't support the massive change in culture and the destruction this will start. What a president this would set.

We are aware that the agenda is to cram more and more humans into cities for "sustainability" purposes, also known as for better control. If those in the planning offices do not
