Your comments on the planning application

I'm strongly against the erection of the additional floor at the property mentioned above. First of all because it will look ugly as all houses on our street are the same height. The design concept would be completely broken. I find it unacceptable.
Secondly, new flats means new residents, which means less parking spaces, and parking on our street is already a problem.
Thirdly, my room on the ground floor gets the day light in the afternoon when the sun is above the mentioned property - meaning if there will be another floor - it will block the sun,
