Your comments on the planning application

I object to the proposed extension for the following reasons:

- The proposed extension is too large and does not keep with the style of the Victorian building. This is a Conservation area so extensions like this should not be permitted
- The proposed extension will also damage the appearance of the garden which is visible from my living room and the garden of 91 Priory Road. Currently there is a nice view overlooking the garden of 89 Priory Road with a beautiful old willow tree. This would be replaced with a large unattractive modern extension while the tree would have to be taken out. Old trees like this is a wonderful feature of Priory Road which should be preserved and not taken out.

In summary, the proposed extension will spoil the view and enjoyment for myself and all occupants of 89 Priory Road and hence should not allowed.
