Your comments on the planning application

First, I would like to complain about the way this outrageous planning application has been handled. The first application was withdrawn, presumably because the overwhelming number of objections from people who will be directly affected. The second application was submitted at the beginning of August, when many people will have been away on holiday, and the time limit for objections set for the 3rd of September. I missed that date because I was away on holidays and only learned of the new proposals on my return on September 20th. On those proposals, the new planning application is largely unchanged. It still features an enormous basement, totally out of proportion to the house that sits above it. Admiral's Walk is one of the prettiest streets in the borough. Grove Lodge is adjacent to other listed buildings. The digging out of the basement would inevitably affect those buildings and affect those who, like me, live nearby. If the new owner wanted a house with a giant basement, he should have bought something other than an 18th century cottage. This revised application should be rejected out of hand.
