Your comments on the planning application

Please could you clarify which building is intended for a roof extension? Nos 7-8 are already two stories higher than the surrounding houses. I would suggest a further storey would be completely out of proportion with the surrounding houses and had that been appropriate this building would have been higher in the first place. If the house immediately behind no. 9 is part of 7-8 and that is where the extension is intended, that is an old cottage building which is part of the charm and character of the area. The houses behind, for example, are listed and would not be allowed to have such an extension and that is for a good reason - to preserve the historical
