Once the residential goes in, the residents will complain about noise levels and the pub will lose its license. Don't fall for this again. Pubs do not make suitable homes and this is not the answer to the housing crisis. These homes will not meet the homes for life standard, there will be insufficient outside space and there is no provision for parking. Reject, reject, reject. |

| 2015/4456/P | Alejandra Plaza | Flat 1a 233 Camden Rd London N7 0HR | 23/09/2015 19:38:14 | OBJ | Dear Planning Officer I hereby, very strongly, OBJECT to planning application 2015/4456/P These plans primarily demonstrate that The Admiral Mann pub will be made to disappear altogether within a very short time, and that would be extraordinary and unforgivable given its ACV status. It is impossible to imagine that this pub, shrunk to its suggested & very limited bar space only, could truly co-exist with the developer's multiple luxury flats and extensive basement/extensions/storeys/etc proposed. In my opinion, the ambitious mixed-use designs are dangerously impractical for the footprint that exists, and a clear (rather unpleasant) representation of the sheer hunger for "profit at all costs" mentality that is so toxic in its effect to our boroughs. Pubs as the Admiral Mann, fulfill a vital community role in all sorts of ways and thereby need the suitable space/resources to continue to deliver such. It cannot provide its traditionally social & benevolent environment from what would appear like a confined room/cubicle with a few taps in it. Above all, the project threatens everything The Admiral Mann and its community have built up over several generations. This local pub & asset is of great importance to so many individuals that I know personally. There are young and old examples, from a diverse and vibrant mix of cultures, people that rely on the pub as a valuable part to being human and alive. Some may only need it for friendship and a sense of belonging, but such things are deeply important to a society that is increasingly locked out of luxury development schemes steam-rolling over London's treasured sense of community. Others need the pub for a place to create or inspire better lives/futures within their familiar neighbourhoods AND in the safe company of each other who they know & trust - with varied sports & club activities or arranging social events, celebrations, fundraising and so much more. The Admiral Mann is an essential component in many people's lives right here and now, outside my door, in my community. It must remain a pub in its entirety & continue to provide its special trademark of huge warm-hearted spirit and support to the hundreds of locals that need it most. Developments that erase the heart & pulse of our society must be stopped. So please stop this one. There is far too much to lose, just look and see all of its surrounding colour, familiar characters and friendly tradition of independent shops, businesses and services - who all know that the Admiral Mann is key to secure their happy existence and the survival of their community. I am fortunate to have lived here for over 8yrs, so I can assure the Council that to REFUSE consent to |

It's always been a traditional place to go to for all aspects of neighbourhood life: I have celebrated my friends' birthdays, marriages, A-Levels, And wakes with friends and family here and am struggling to meet all the people who are part of this family without ithe Admiral Man at the moment. My life and world is getting much smaller and lonelier. The Admiral Man has never been private flats, always a traditional place to enhance social wellbeing. Furthermore it has been listed as an "Asset of Community Value. Please, I urge the Council to refuse consent to the application 2015/4456/P |

| 2015/4456/P | David Woods | 27 Fieldhouse Lane | 18/09/2015 18:46:27 | OBJ | I object to the application as I consider its purpose is simply to surround the Admiral Mann with unrelated residential development which, combined with the reduction in floor space in the pub, will ultimately render the pub business non-viable. |
