Your comments on the planning application

Dear Camden Council,
I have a child who attends The Mulberry House School and after having seen the plans for the new addition I am writing in support of the proposed extension to the current building. The designs are not only functional and environmentally conscious, but will enhance the school's exterior without being obstructive to the neighbourhood. The additional space will provide much needed room for the children in their learning activities and improve accessibility for both children and parents. It looks to be a beautiful result and although my son will no longer be a pupil at the school by the time the works are completed, I am confident that children in years to come will very much enjoy their new, improved school environment!

Yours sincerely,
Nishat
