Your comments on the planning application

Noise. Disturbance. More essential exterior decorations to the house should be done before commencing any new works. It seems the applicant - the freeholder would like to transfer some of the loft conversion costs to us - existing leaseholders. Exterior works to the building were due in spring 2015, but they were put on hold with no explanation. Impressive sink fund, which is collected from leaseholders, is already in place. Now everyone understands why these works were postponed.
