Your comments on the planning application

The premises at the location of 105 King's Cross Road is a Family-Run pub named "The Carpenters". Over the years it has become a local community venue for inter-pub ladies and gents darts, music nights for the more elderly customers, and KARAOKE for the younger generations. It is run by a couple named Jacky and Dave, who excel in having a hands-on contribution to the local community - customers and neighbours. The warmth of the atmosphere of the pub under their management can be - AND SHOULD BE - evidenced by a visit to their website. If Camden Council are serious about preserving
