Details of the pre-application advice received:

Window sizes, as mentioned the window sizes were misleading as all windows will be much bigger than the sample once installed and therefore this was accepted. Visible joints and fixing rivets on the extrusion, as mentioned once this will be on the conservatory these will be very hard to see but we will still make sure the joints are as small as possible and rivets as flush as possible. Paint colour, no comments but chosen colour to be identified on planning discharge.
