Your comments on the planning application

Heath House is a beautiful building in a prominent position. Currently it is falling apart and if it were allowed to fall down that would be a significant loss to the area, it needs to be refurbished to it's former glory. I am not concerned about retaining the interior layout, if it can become the home to six families rather than one then that is all to the good. I support small changes to the exterior if they allow a sensible interior layout and retain the style and feeling of the original building.
