7. Description of Use, Operation or Activity

Which category describes the existing use or operation or development for which the certificate is sought:

- An existing use
- An existing operation
- An existing use, operation or activity in breach of a condition

Being a use, operation or activity in effect on the date of this application.

If Yes, to either 'an existing use' or 'an existing use in breach of a condition', please state which one of the Use Classes of the Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) Order 1987 (as amended) the use relates to:

Use Classes: Other:

8. Description of Use, Operation or Activity

Describe the existing uses, building works or activities for which you want a lawful development certificate. Where appropriate, show to which part of the land each use building works or activity relates:

The property has been and is currently used as a 1 bedroom self-contained residential flat since December 2008. It is part of a semi-detached house that was originally intended to be converted into 2 self-contained flats, however upon completion of the conversion and subsequent inspection late in 2008 by Camden Council three separate addresses and council tax accounts were allocated. Since then then the property has been used as separate 1 bedroom unit with its own address, council tax and utilities. The purpose of this application is to obtain a lawful development certificate for this 1 bedroom flat as it is not recognised as part of the original conversion despite being recorded on the councils systems as a separate entity since December 2008.

9. Grounds For Application For A Lawful Development Certificate

Under what grounds is the certificate being sought:

- The use began more than 10 years before the date of this application
- The use, building works or activity in breach of condition began more than 10 years before the date of this application.
- The use began within the last 10 years, as a result of a change of use not requiring planning permission, and there has not been a change of use requiring planning permission in the last 10 years
- The building works (for instance, building or engineering works) were substantially completed more than four years before the date of this application.
- The use as a single dwelling house began more than four years before the date of this application
- Other - please specify (this might include claims that the change of use or building work was not development, or that it benefited from planning permission granted under the Act or by the General Permitted Development Order).

If the certificate is sought on 'Other' grounds please give details:

If the certificate is sought for a use, operation, or activity in breach of a condition or limitation, please specify the condition or limitation that has not been complied with:

Reference number: Condition number: Date:

Please state why a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted:

The property has been used as a 1 bedroom self-contained residential flat since December 2008. It is part of a semi-detached house that was originally intended to be converted into 2 self-contained flats, however upon completion of the conversion and subsequent inspection late in 2008 by Camden Council three separate addresses and council tax accounts were allocated.

Although it was not the original intention for the property to be classed as 3 separate units this was the decision and view taken by the council when the property was inspected back in 2008 and as such should be granted the appropriate certificate of lawfulness to formalise its legality as since this time it has been used as residential unit both to house members of the family and as private rented accommodation. As mentioned the property is already recognised as separate unit as it has its own address and council tax which has been paid for since 2008-Present, this is also reflected on the councils electoral roll system.
