

Photos taken on site at No. 47 UPR show evidence of a balustrade in place across the front of the roof of the bay window located at the front of the property

