Your comments on the planning application

Please dont let them build an extension. They are terrible neighbours, they have caused a nuisance for the last few years, with drugs, loud music, late parties, shouting and arguments. My last tenant left the property because of them, and my previous tenant, who is very reasonable, has urged me to take more action, to the point I have been forced to contact the police. They are responsible for the smell of drugs in our mutual corridor, and despite personal appeal and then later a police intervention, have not improved or cleaned up their act. The above flats are suffering, and my tenant in the top floor (flat 5) cannot imagine how flat 3 and
