Your comments on the planning application

The architecture is historic, appreciated by people in the area and distinct and noticeable. It is rare, as a noticeable historic building in Somers Town. The design with its oval windows and additional unusual windows and design is also well liked, in itself and for its impact in the area. It is also a pleasant building in this central location in Somers Town.

It also has very interesting history and was built at the same time as Levita and Chamberlaine Houses next to it, between the world wars. It seems as if it may have also been built by an architect of the County Council (because there are documents existing regarding the drain designs, as well as the Annual Report at this time which is full of history and stories of people involved in this project, which was a nursery and daycentre for "fatherless children").

This is what people like in an area, and why they like Somers Town. People also like to work in an area that is historic eg in the City rather than newly built eg Canary Wharf/Canada Water.
