Your comments on the planning application

Bartholomew Estate and Kentish Town CAAC strongly object to this proposal . The size of the proposed single story building is huge being 9.6 M wide and 3,9 M high this is not in keeping with the area. The proposal is for this to be used for ancillary residential purposes e.g this seems to be an attempt to build a residential property in the garden of the building , there is no indication of foundations, drainage, services etc.Work appears already to be in progress on the site. A building of this height and bulk will not enhance the area , will I encroach on the current garden and be out of keeping with the surrounding area ,
