Your comments on the planning application

For the attention of Fergus Freeney

Dear Fergus

I am writing in relation to the planning application which has the alteration of the windows and door to the main entrance of the building.

I believe that the change from commercial to residential is in contradiction with the application for changing to the latter.

79 Fortess Road already looks onto our property directly from the back of 93 Fortess Road and when commercial employees have been in there previously, it has caused privacy concerns. You are unable to open your window at the back of the property as you are literally 3 metres from wall to wall.

This will have a further impact on our privacy if residents will be in situ 24 hours a day, especially at weekends when the likelihood is the flats will be rented out.

The amount of additional people that this will add to the back of the property will be large and it is an expanse of 2 buildings which increases echo and noise. We would like to understand where the new door will be placed, the alleyway between the 2 is not a suitable position for this in the first place. It is both a security risk and increases the risk of burglary in that space.

This door could also be opposite some residents of 93 Fortess Roads living rooms which isn't satisfactory at all.

I believe work has already commenced on the site and there is constant shouting in the alleyway from contractors which convenes both the planning application overall and the gate is left open constantly which also causes a security risk.

With all of the above, I object to both the external alterations of 73 Fortess Road and also the overall plans.

Regards

Paul
