Your comments on the planning application

My only concern is that 186 is architecturally the same building that also contains within it 188 and 190. I note that it is the intention of 186 to build a new covered entry to the property, which is understandable, but my concern is that all three entries MUST appear the same, preferably the Owner of 186, pays for 188 and 190 to be repaired to suit his intentions, OR if this is not within the Owners proposal then surely he MUST revise his design to match that of 188 and 190.
The architectural statement of the facade must be considered important in this street of Camden. Thanks Tony
