What is this applicant up to?

This is the 5th letter of objection we have had to write, in respect of identical proposals, some presented under the same reference numbers. See our last comment dated 26 January 2016.

Our objections, and those of thousands of others locally and worldwide, have been made clearly and explicitly enough, and we really don't think we need to re-state them now.

However, if you need to have further copies, please notify us.

Please refuse.
