Your comments on the planning application

The premises requesting change of use shares a wall with my living room. There is not insulation on that wall (a previous tenant stripped all insulation away to gain more space) hence all noise, speech, phone calls and any music or steps can be heard right into my living room. I also run my business from home (coaching and executive search) which means I spend almost all my time awake and asleep in my house. I am an early riser (5am) and hence go to sleep early. Any noise next door is very bad for my well being. In addition this is not a location where restaurants succeed. Every one that has tried has lasted no more than 12-18
