Your comments on the planning application

We have had a lot of problems on Oakshott Court over the years and are still having problems with people hanging around in the communal areas on Oakshott Court, by causing noise, drinking, fighting, and whatever else go's on around Oakshott Court.

Anything that help prevent us from having these problems and deterring people from coming the estate can only be a good thing.

The summer is coming and these problems will only get worse going from the previous years.

The people that are objecting to the cameras haven't lived on the estate that long and don't live near the problem parts of the estate so they don't really know or are affected that much.

We live on the hotspot and know and affected more than most of the residents.
