Your comments on the planning application

I am objecting to this planning application on the basis that it seriously impacts on the ability of Air Lyndhurst Studios next door to operate during the carrying out of the work because of the proximity of heavy drilling. This could result in the non-viability of a very successful cornerstone of the British music and film industries and even its closure. Many musicians across London rely on Air Lyndhurst for their living but of course locally one must also consider the impact on taxis, food services and other ancillary businesses. Also if one of our two major recording facilities were forced to close the business from abroad would be
