Your comments on the planning application

I am concerned that the extent of the works, with corresponding plant noise and highly-undirectional low-frequency sounds will cause serious disruption to the operation of AIR Recording Studios next door. This world-class facility is one of but a handful remaining in London and is essential to the city's musical life both professional and cultural. At the very least, some accommodation must be sought between the Applicant and the studios, whereby any work by the former is not undertaken during the operating hours of the latter. As I understand it, a recent survey the Applicant commissioned, involving drilling, was
