Your comments on the planning application

I feel very strongly that a disruption of this scale to Air Lyndhurst studios would be catastrophic to the UK music and film industry. It is the studio of choice for many of the top film composers and most successful bands in the world. There are only 3 or 4 studios left in London that are large enough for a full orchestra. If we aren't able to house the orchestras, the film companies will go to other countries which will have a huge impact on the studios, engineers, producers, composers, musicians and the UK film and music industries. Please don't let this happen.
