Your comments on the planning application

These works would cause the closure of Air Studios, meaning the loss of specialist staff and the loss of their livelihood, and not just for their duration but permanently (as clients would take their business to other countries) causing the the loss of a great cultural asset for Camden- one of only two sound stages in London suitable for recording film scores. There is also a risk to the fabric of the Air Studios and 11 Rosslyn Hill, both listed buildings.
