Your comments on the planning application

This application will have a devastating impact on the operational ability of Air Studios. This recording studio has hosted and continues to host recording artists and composers from around the world. It is a crucial venue for film companies who employ British musicians to work on the soundtracks of major motion pictures and is one of only two suitable venues in London, the other being Abbey Road. For Air to have to cease operating due to noise from building work would have a disastrous effect on not only the studio staff but also the many artists who record there who depend on it for their livelihoods - and this is NOT just the multi-million record-selling artists who use the venue but the countless much lower paid session musicians who need to earn a living. Owners of expensive properties in this area of London need to be reminded that with this ownership come neighbourly responsibilities which are blatantly being overlooked in this case.
