Your comments on the planning application

I write to object to the renewed application for extensive basement works at this address, which continues to threaten the work of Sir George Martin's Air Studios.

This studio, along with Abbey Road Studios, are only large scale recording venues left in the capital capable of supplying recording facilities for Hollywood movies, full orchestral works, etc.

Because of the unsurpassed quality of UK musicianship, specifically the ability to sightread complex scores so that the "red light" is switched on within minutes of a recording session starting, the world comes to Air and Abbey Road studios. Quite simply, a world-beating industry is threatened by this application.

I am Camden born, bred and resident, and my pre-schooling took place within 100 yards of Air Studios. I am a freelance singer, and part of the pool of musicians who work regularly at Air Studios on recording projects, so my livelihood would be directly affected by the closure of Air Studios, whether short or long term.

A precarious but precious industry is at risk here; I urge you to reject the application.
