Your comments on the planning application

The potentially devastating noise and disturbance issues that the building works will create for the studio could keep the studio from functioning as a business for 6 months or even longer. The consequences of this would affect a large span of the music industry, not only in London but across the world. Many international composers, directors, performers and musicians rely on this historic space for their business. As a self employed musician myself, this income is crucial.

As pertaining to the new application and the disregard of our original objections, it is completely unreasonable to treat our
