Your comments on the planning application

Despite the change to the application, the applicants have not addressed the issues raised by Air Studio's experts so my own previous written objection stands.
I believe however that I must object again-twice!
Basement digs are causing more and more problems. Only recently a Georgian house collapsed when a basement was being dug out. I'm sure there are many risks to local housing as well as Air studios if this were to go ahead. In my area , Ealing, basement digs have diverted underground water and caused flooding in nearby homes. The work itself would put Air studios out of business for at least six months, possibly for ever. The music recording industry is fragile and Air is one of only two decent size studios in London. Many film and TV scores would be recorded elsewhere and not come back to London. The recording industry brings in a lot of money to Britain as the musicians standard is so high and we are quick to read and record music. A lot of people will be put out of work for the sake of a private swimming pool and cinema!
