Your comments on the planning application

I would like to object in the strongest possible terms to an application which will stop a nationally important institution, Air Studios, in its tracks - a situation from which it might possibly never recover, thus robbing the music industry of one of its most essential infrastructures. At a time when large-scale music studios have already become a rare species, this will have a significant negative impact on the British music industry, both directly, in terms of logistics and indirectly, in terms of repute. It is simply disproportionate and frankly myopic to allow a scheme that favours one person's interests over the industry of which the British can proudly call one of their best exports. This must not be allowed to happen through short sightedness. There are times when you need to take your gaze off the small print and recognise how much is at stake. That time has come.

If Camden allows this planning application to progress any further it will be a black mark on its ability to recognise national priorities lying within its jurisdiction. I urge you not to allow this planning application consent in any way, shape or form.

Yours sincerely, Dan Jones Composer (BAFTA winner 2010 Ivor Novello winner 2010 2005)
