2016/1296/P	Rosalind Raine	2 upper terrace nw3 6rh	12/04/2016 13:58:43	OBJ	The charm and legacy of this historic street in old Hampstead will be further eroded by yet more destruction of the old, distinctive wall by the applicants. Once destroyed we can never recover the character of this place which so beguiles londoners and visitors alike. It is disingenuous to state that further destruction of this distinctive wall will be in keeping with the context for the simple reason that the rest of the wall (which stands in front of a 4 house Georgian terrace) is only broken by 2 narrow gates. The applicants are already demolishing a significant portion of the wall to allow their cars to enter their garden. Please do not allow them to further ruin the heritage of our street.
