Your comments on the planning application

The majority of members of the Combined Residents' Associations of South Hampstead (CRASH) have asked me to put on record this associations' strong objection to this latest application for an amendment of conditions which will enable Essential Living to demolish the existing building at 100 Avenue Road before vital and important information concerning the foundations of the proposed 24-storey tower block are detailed.

Allowing the developer to go ahead will subject people living in the area to months of noise and serious air pollution, demolish the existing building which currently acts as a barrier against air pollution caused by traffic on Finchley Road and Avenue Road so as to allow excessively increased particulate matter to infiltrate the open space causing serious health risks and problems for people living nearby and make the open green space unusable throughout the summer months when it is most visited by local residents and children. In addition it will render the space a derelict site until such time as Transport for London, HS2 and Camden are able (if ever) to agree that details of the necessary foundations are safe. In view of the fact that Essential Living have been less than forthcoming in detailing that necessary technical information CRASH respectfully asks that the latest application be refused.

Yours truly,

Re: 'amendment of condition 27' - 2016/2048/P.

Dear Ms Zenab,

Please would you kindly post my objection to the above amendment on your website. I think it is important that democracy is seen to be in progress as it's such a good idea.

Kind regards, Elaine Chambers
