2016/1974/L	Kathleen Murray	7 Tower Court London WC2H 9NU	25/04/2016 15:43:06	OBJ	The noise from an air conditioning unit would materially impact on the rear neighbours on Tower Court where the sound would bounce around between the buildings, reducing the amenity of the patios and effecting our sleep. Furthermore the sight of an air conditioning unit is not in keeping with the objectives of a listed building.
