Your comments on the planning application

Last year there was a sink hole in the road outside 15 Daleham Gardens. In the last few years massive quantities of soil have been removed from another development further up the hill. Every time a lorry goes over the speed ramp outside my house, my house shakes and there is a hollow sound. I have alarming cracks in my walls. It is clear that the hill is moving. The council web site will not allow me on, so I cannot see the details of what is proposed at my border with number 15. If it involves removal of soil I am very concerned. In addition, if it involves blocking the light to my property I object to that very strongly. I have tried calling
