About the Pub

In Aug 2014 McMullens sold this pub to a developer and closed it on the bank holiday weekend. A very comfortable two-bar pub, smaller front bar which was the public and a larger lounge with booths and ample seating. The pub is carpeted throughout, hence the difficulty in separating the function of the two rooms, especially as they both have dart boards and screens regularly showing sporting events. A cupboard full of trophies illustrates the enthusiasm for arrows. Other pub games can also be found such as cards, cribbage and shove ha'penny and there are weekly pub quizzes. A very traditional local and the only tied house for this Hertfordshire brewery in North London Branch's area. An accredited member of CAMRA's LocAle scheme. No food.
