Dear Mr James,

I am currently dealing with a planning application at the above site which falls within the King's Cross St. Pancras conservation area. I'm afraid that, due to an error on my part, you have not received a consultation letter for the application, please accept my apologies for this.

The reason I am contacting you now is to find out if you wish to add any comments to the application before the decision is made final?

It is a relatively minor application which proposes replacement doors at the main entrance of the ground floor unit along with 4 internally illuminated signs associated with the new retail use at the site.

Kind regards,
